I think we need to make a spot for her right away and approve her at the board meeting next week. I can't remember offhand the other new public sector members we're approving, but one of them (TBI guy?) can be approved to take Mark Norris' seat as soon as Norris rolls off.

I also think we should find something to plug her into right away that she can get excited about and champion, and ask her for her help on it. What about asking her to meet with Dorcas and Altha Stewart about the Youth Assessment and Intervention Center? We will need county commission support to make that go and best to have her supporting it.

Ps if she comes she will hear us elect a lot of people which will just make her madder. Hard to argue we are full when we are electing folks now and taking commission spot for another. If we say Billingsley is commission spot we risk pushback from her and Turner. Other than we do not want her, we are pretty boxed in based on precedent. No win deal.
